Hi AMALIA,

Welcome to Singlife!

Thank you for choosing us as your insurance partner. We recognize how buying insurance can be frustrating. Here at Singlife, we use the smartest technologies to provide tools and solutions that fit your budget, needs, and are always on hand. We are glad that you have decided to take control of how you save and get protected.

This document serves as your Policy Contract for Singlife AccidentSupport with coverage starting from July 22, 2026 to October 21, 2026. It details the benefits and other important information of your insurance policy. These types of documents can get difficult to read, so we've tried to cut the jargon and make it as simple to understand as possible.

Singlife aims to pay every valid claim on time. To make that happen, please take a few minutes to review the details of your Policy Contract and understand what you are entitled to so that when the time comes, you'll be sure your claim is paid out promptly.

We truly believe that insurance should be offered as flexibly as the way you live. So just in case you change your mind about buying Singlife AccidentSupport, you can cancel your policy until August 05, 2026 through the Maya App. We'll return your money, no questions asked.

If there's anything you don't understand in this Policy Contract, or if you have suggestions to make insurance even simpler, you may reach us via our hotline (02)-8299-3737, or email us at help@singlife.com.

Your Policy Contract

This Policy Contract details the insurance you have bought. It consists of the following:

- Your Product Contract contains the benefits of the coverage you have purchased. This section of the document explains what your insurance does and does not cover.
- Your Policy Details Page(s) describe the summary of benefits unique to each insured individual. These pages will be updated each time the benefits are updated.
- Your Application Form documents the initial purchase process of your insurance policy through the Maya App.

The following documents may also form part of this Policy Contract:

- All other forms that will be used in processing your application and servicing your Policy. An example is the Health Statement Form which documents additional questions about your health that we may ask.
- Endorsements are documents that confirm changes made, if any, to your Policy. For example, upon our approval of your request to increase your Policy's coverage, we will issue an endorsement.
- To provide flexibility to the varying needs of customers, we may offer additional benefits which you may opt to purchase and add to your Policy. Supplementary Contracts detail additional benefits, any limitations or conditions that you need to be aware of, and any changes made to the provisions of your Policy due to the additional benefit.

Definition of Terms We Use

Making insurance as simple and transparent as possible starts with the terms we use. While we have cut the jargon throughout this document, there are key insurance terms that will help you understand your insurance policy better.

Policy Roles

Every insurance policy has key policy roles: the Policy Owner, the Primary Insured, and the Beneficiary.

Policy Owner/Primary Insured	The person who applies for the Policy. He/she is the person with rights to the Policy. He/she is also the person covered by the Policy.
Beneficiary	The person/s designated to receive the policy benefits if the Insured passes away. They are primary and revocable in this insurance policy, which means the Policy Owner has the right to change any of them over time and perform all his/her policy rights and privileges without the Beneficiary's consent.

When we say “you”, we mean both the Policy Owner and the Primary Insured, who is the same individual.

When we say “we”, “us”, and “our”, we mean Singlife Philippines Inc. the issuer of your insurance policy.

Dates & Periods

To ensure your Policy remains active, take note of the following definitions.

Effective Date	The day when your insurance coverage becomes active as stated in your Policy Details Page(s) upon payment of the initial premium.
Age	Age refers to the Insured's age as of his/her last birthday.
Premium	The amount of money you pay to be covered under an insurance policy.
Premium Due Date	The day your premium payment becomes payable.
Termination Date	The date when your insurance coverage ends.
Free-Look Period	This is a fifteen (15) day duration after you have received your Policy when you may cancel your Policy and get a full refund of the premiums paid.

Definition of Terms We Use

Grace Period

This is a duration given to you after the Premium Due Date when you can pay overdue premium without your insurance coverage terminating.

Relating to Your Benefits

Your benefits include certain qualifications that you need to understand, so that your claims are deemed valid.

Disability

This refers to any of the following three (3) disabilities:

1. Functional Disability;
2. Occupational Disability; or
3. Presumptive Disability.

Accident or Accidental

Any unintentional act or unforeseen, unusual, and unexpected which directly causes an injury or death, solely and independently from any other means.

Injury

Any damage to the body caused by external, violent, and accidental means (including drowning), and independent of any other cause.

Functional Disability

A state or condition where you are prevented from performing at least three (3) of the following six (6) Activities of Daily Living (ADL):

1. Washing — the ability to wash in the bath or shower (including getting into and out of the bath or shower) or wash satisfactorily by other means.
2. Dressing — the ability to put on, take off, secure, and unfasten all garments and, as appropriate, any braces, artificial limbs, or other surgical appliances.
3. Transferring — the ability to move from a bed to an upright chair or wheelchair and vice versa.
4. Mobility — the ability to move indoors from room to room on level of surfaces.
5. Toileting — the ability to use the lavatory or otherwise manage bowel and bladder functions to maintain a satisfactory level of personal hygiene.
6. Feeding — the ability to feed oneself once food has been prepared and made available.

Definition of Terms We Use

Presumptive Disability	A state or condition where you suffer from total and irrevocable loss of use of the following: • The entire sight in both eyes; or • Any two limbs at or above the wrist or ankle; or • The entire sight in one eye and any one limb at or above the wrist or ankle. “Total and irrevocable loss of use” means that it is impossible to get back the use of the body part’s function.
Occupational Disability	A state or condition where you are unable to perform your current occupation or any reasonable alternative occupation. “Reasonable alternative occupation” means any job where a person can earn more than half of his/her monthly income prior to being disabled.
Total & Permanent Disability	A disability that is permanent, irreversible, and there are no viable means for the condition to improve in the foreseeable future.
Licensed Pilot, Helmsman, or Paid Driver	Any driver, pilot, or helmsman (a person who steers a water borne-craft) who is hired or paid to drive a motor vehicle, fly an aircraft, or steer a water-borne craft, whether for private use or for hire to the public.
Cash Benefit	The periodic payments made to you or your Beneficiaries after we approve your claim.
Physician	This is a person licensed under the law to practice medicine, excluding your or the insured's relatives up to the third (3rd) degree of consanguinity or affinity.
Claim	This is a formal request by you, the Policy Owner, the Beneficiary/ies or any authorized claimant to an insurance company for coverage or compensation for a covered loss or event. We will validate the claim and, once approved, issue payment to you or your Beneficiaries.

1. Accident Coverage

1.1 Standard Accident Coverage

Accidents do happen, and they happen when you least expect it.

The following are considered as a standard accident under your Policy.

- a. Travelling Accident on land, air, or sea.
An accident that occurs during your daily commute or while travelling by land, or through any aircrafts, or whatever-borne crafts.
- b. Unprovoked Assault.
- c. Fire accidents resulting injuries including accidental suffocation from smoke or fumes.
- d. Accidental Drowning.
- e. Accidental suffocation from gas or fumes other than those cause by fire under 'c. Fire accidents' above.

1.2 Expanded Accident Coverage

Some causes of accidents are riskier than others. We've designed this product to cover these.

The following are considered as an expanded accident under your Policy. They are accidents that happen:

- a. while you are at work as a Licensed Pilot, Helmsman, or Paid Driver.
- b. while you are in a commercial vehicle, aircraft, or water-borne craft but not as a fare-paying passenger (e.g. conductors, flight attendants, waiter, crew members, etc.).
- c. while you are under the influence of drugs or alcohol, except if the accident was a result of an unlawful or illegal act.
- d. while you are doing any occupation-related tasks, except if you are on duty and serving in the armed forces of any country or international authority, whether in the time of war or peace.

1. Accident Coverage

e. during any of the following incidents:

- Body Boarding
- Kite Surfing
- Jet Skiing
- Canoeing
- Wind Surfing
- Hang Gliding
- Paragliding
- Ballooning
- Gliding
- Canopy Piloting
- Parachuting
- Skydiving
- Legal Road Racing
- Legal Water Racing

f. during any act of terrorism, not committed by you. We may adjust or delay payment of benefit for accidents due to this cause.

g. during any nuclear, biological, or chemical attacks/warfare, not committed by you. We may adjust or delay payment of benefit for accidents due to this cause.

Act of Terrorism

Acts of violence meant to physically harm or intimidate societies and governments in the pursuit of political, religious, or social ideologies. This may include acts not included in the prior sentence but are considered to be acts of terrorism by the government where the said acts occurred.

2. Your Benefits

2.1 In case you become disabled

Disabilities can prevent you from providing for your family's daily needs and derail your long-term goals.

In case you become disabled, we will pay you the following:

- 2.1.1 One hundred percent (100%) of the Monthly Cash Benefit and Cash Bonus as stated in your Policy Details Page(s), if you become totally and permanently disabled as a result of a standard accident as defined in Section 1 'Accident Coverage'; or
- 2.1.2 Fifty percent (50%) of the Monthly Cash Benefit and Cash Bonus stated in your Policy Details Page(s), if you become totally and permanently disabled as a result of an expanded accident as defined in Section 1 'Accident Coverage'.

while your Policy is active and if your disability will fall into any of the following:

a. Functional Disability

A state or condition where you are prevented from performing at least three (3) of the following six (6) Activities of Daily Living (ADL):

- i. Washing — the ability to wash in the bath or shower (including getting into and out of the bath or shower) or wash satisfactorily by other means.
- ii. Dressing — the ability to put on, take off, secure and unfasten all garments and, as appropriate, any braces, artificial limbs or other surgical appliances.
- iii. Transferring — the ability to move from a bed to an upright chair or wheelchair and vice versa.
- iv. Mobility — the ability to move indoors from room to room on level surfaces.
- v. Toileting — the ability to use the lavatory or otherwise manage bowel and bladder functions so as to maintain a satisfactory level of personal hygiene.
- vi. Feeding — the ability to feed oneself once food has been prepared and made available.

2. Your Benefits

b. Presumptive Disability

A state or condition where you suffer total and irrevocable loss of use of the following:

- The entire sight in both eyes; or
- Any two limbs at or above the wrist or ankle; or
- The entire sight in one eye and any one limb at or above the wrist or ankle.

Total and Irrevocable Loss of Use

This means that it is impossible to get back the use of the body part's function.

c. Occupational Disability

A state or condition where you are unable to perform your current occupation or any reasonable alternative occupation.

Reasonable Alternative Occupation

Any job where a person can earn more than half of his/her income prior to being disabled.

Occupation

Any job, employment, profession, or means of living that provides an income to a person.

2. Your Benefits

Things you need to know

- You must have an occupation within six (6) months before the incident that caused the disability occurred, for it to be covered under this Benefit. Also, you must have been in that occupation for at least six (6) months.
- The disability will only be payable if it's a Total & Permanent Disability and it satisfies the following conditions:
 - It persists continuously for at least six (6) months starting from the first day of disability for the following types of disabilities:
 - Functional Disability
 - Occupational Disability; AND
 - An attending physician certifies that the person will not recover from the disability in the next five (5) years for the following types of disabilities:
 - Functional Disability
 - Presumptive Disability
 - Occupational Disability

Total & Permanent Disability

A disability that is permanent, irreversible, and there are no viable means for the condition to improve in the foreseeable future.

2.2 In case you pass away

Passing away puts heavy emotional and financial burden on those you leave behind.

In case you pass away, we will pay your Beneficiary/ies the following:

- 2.2.1 One hundred percent (100%) of the Monthly Cash Benefit and Cash Bonus as stated in your Policy Details Page(s), if you pass away as a result of a standard accident as defined in Section 1 'Accident Coverage'; or
- 2.2.2 Fifty percent (50%) of the Monthly Cash Benefit and Cash Bonus stated in your Policy Details Page(s), if you pass away as a result of an expanded accident as defined in Section 1 'Accident Coverage'.

2. Your Benefits

Things you need to know

- If we find your claim documents to be invalid or if we have reason to believe that the cause of death or disability is not due to a standard or expanded accident, we may request for the following to further assess your claim, where it is not forbidden by law:
 - undergo medical examination (at our expense); or
 - submit other validation documents; or
 - complete other necessary procedures.
- Your total benefits under this Policy and your other accident policies/coverages issued by Singlife will be subject to the maximum allowable amount that we set at the time this Policy was issued. We will refund to you the total premiums you paid that correspond to any amount in excess of the maximum allowable amount.

3. What We are Not Able to Cover

We will not pay any benefit for disability or death under your Policy if these:

- are not caused by any of the covered accidents under Section 1 'Accident Coverage'.
- are caused by
 - suicide or any attempted suicide, while sane or insane; or
 - any intentionally self-inflicted injury; or
 - any illegal or unlawful act, or any attempt to perform any illegal or unlawful act (including any act of terrorism) committed by you.
- happened while you are on duty and serving in the armed forces of any country or international authority, whether in the time of war or peace.

4. Cash Benefits

4.1 Monthly Cash Benefit

The Cash Benefit for your Policy will be given to you or your Beneficiary/ies monthly following the duration stated in your Policy Details Page(s). However, you can opt to change the duration you want to receive the cash benefit any time prior to filing a claim. The durations available will be subject to the available durations offered by us at the time you decide to make the change.

4.2 Changes in Monthly Cash Benefit

4.2.1 You may choose to make the following changes any time prior to claim, subject to payment of additional premium, if any:

- increase the duration that you will receive the monthly cash benefit and maintain the monthly cash benefit amount;
- maintain the duration that you will receive the monthly cash benefit and increase the monthly cash benefit amount;
- increase and/or decrease the duration that you will receive the monthly cash benefit and/or monthly cash benefit amount.

4.2.2 Your Beneficiary may opt to receive the remaining monthly cash benefit in lump sum, after the claim has been approved when:

- you pass away; or
- you pass away while the monthly cash benefit for disability are being paid.

However, a ten percent (10%) penalty will be deducted from the lump sum cash benefit. The lump sum cash benefit is equal to the Sum Assured minus all advance cash paid. Also, the Cash Bonus, if any, will no longer be payable.

4. Cash Benefits

Things you need to know

If you choose to change the duration of the monthly cash benefit after a claim has been filed, the Cash Bonus (if any) will be waived and:

- A ten percent (10%) penalty will be deducted from the total benefit amount that is still payable if you requested for a decrease in the duration of cash benefit (ex. from 48 to 24 months).
- There will be no penalty if you requested an increase in the duration of cash benefit (ex. from 24 to 36 months).

The remaining duration for which the monthly cash benefits will be payable will be equal to 'new duration of the cash benefit' minus 'the number of monthly cash benefit already paid'.

4.3 Cash Bonus

This Policy may provide for a Cash Bonus depending on the chosen duration of the cash benefit. The amount of the Cash Bonus is stated in your Policy Details Page(s) and will be paid together with the last payment of the monthly cash benefit.

Things you need to know

- The Cash Bonus is non-guaranteed, which means that it may not be paid to you or your Beneficiaries subject to the conditions set in your Policy.
- The Cash Bonus will not be paid if:
 - You or your Beneficiaries change the cash benefit duration after filing for a claim under your Policy.
 - You pass away and your Beneficiary/ies choose/s to receive the remaining cash benefits in lump sum rather than on a monthly basis.

5. Premiums

Premiums

The amount of money you pay to be covered under an insurance policy.

Your premiums are due on or before the Premium Due Date stated in your Policy Details Page(s). The payment of your premiums can be made through Maya App.

You have until the end of the thirty-one (31) day grace period to pay your premiums. If you have any claims during this grace period, we will deduct any unpaid premium from the benefits payable.

6. Claims

Claims

A formal request by you, the Policy Owner, the Beneficiary/ies, or any authorized claimant to an insurance company for coverage or compensation for a covered loss or event. We will validate the claim and once approved, issue payment to you or your Beneficiaries.

To file a claim, go to the claims section of your Policy Page inside your Maya App. Provide the necessary information and upload electronic copies of the claim documents. We will contact you if we will require any additional information and/or document(s). You may also call us or check singlife.com.ph to learn more about other available methods of notifying us and filing a claim. You should notify us within thirty (30) days from the date of incident of the benefit for which you are claiming.

Claims Documents

This refers to, but is not limited to the following:

- Documents to verify the identity of the claimant;
- Proof of Loss;
- Account Information to where the benefits will be paid to.

Any notice of claim given to us by a claimant other than you will only be considered valid if we can verify that you gave your consent to him/her. If we are able to verify this, we will allow the claimant to submit the claim documents.

Once you have submitted the complete claims documents and we have approved your claim, we will pay you the benefits within thirty (30) days from the date of our approval.

However, if we do not give a reply regarding your claim after sixty (60) days from receiving the claim documents, your claim will be considered approved. We will pay you within thirty (30) days from the day the claim was considered approved. If we do not pay you within this time, you will be entitled to an interest.

6. Claims

The total of all benefits that you claim under this Policy and all other accident coverages issued by Singlife will be subject to the maximum allowable amount that we set at the time this Policy was issued. We will refund to you the premiums you paid that correspond to any amount in excess of the maximum allowable amount limit.

Proof of Loss

This refers to the document/s that may show the following:

1. Disability
 - a. The cause of the disability
 - b. Proof of employment or business
 - c. Proof that the disability is total & permanent
 - d. Report(s) of the accident occurring
2. Death – the cause of death.
 - a. The cause of death
 - b. Report(s) of the accident occurring

Things you need to know

- You need to submit the claim documents within ninety (90) days from the date the loss occurs. If you do not submit within ninety (90) days and you can show that proof cannot be provided within the allotted time, we will still accept it. We are not responsible for the costs for filing forms, acquiring documents or reports, or incurring losses because of a delay.
- We may also require to see and inspect the original copies of documents you have submitted. You should keep the original copies of the documents for at least five (5) years from the day we have decided on your claim.
- We may make an investigation during the payment of the monthly cash benefits and stop the payments, if we discover that you are not disabled under the definition of disability in this policy or if the cause of the disability or death is under Section 1 'Accident Coverage'.

7. Advance Cash Option

Advance Cash Option

This is the monthly benefit amount paid in advance once the claimant has submitted the required claim documents. The amount to be paid is subject to conditions set in Section 2 'Your Benefits'.

We understand that you or your Beneficiaries will continue to have financial needs after submitting the required claim documents and awaiting our decision on the claim. To help during this time, we can start paying the advance cash option to you or your Beneficiaries, provided that you or your Beneficiaries submit the required claim documents and you or your Beneficiaries agree to the conditions for the execution of the advance cash option, following our guidelines at the time of claims filing.

The payout of the advance cash option does not mean that the claim is approved, nor does it mean that we will not ask for additional supporting documents. We may still ask for supporting documents to allow us to decide on the claim.

7.1 If the claim is approved

The payment of the monthly cash benefit will start the following month after the last advance cash was paid subject to the provisions of your Policy. Any advance cash paid will be considered part of the monthly cash benefit.

If your Beneficiary/ies opt to receive the remaining monthly cash benefit in a lump sum, a ten percent (10%) penalty will be deducted from the lump sum cash benefit. The lump sum cash benefit is equal to the Sum Assured minus all advance cash paid. Also, the Cash Bonus, if any, will no longer be payable.

7.2 If the claim is denied

The payout of the advance cash option will stop. In case of disability, we will ask you to return all advance cash option that you received and to pay any outstanding premiums to keep your Policy active. If you fail to do so, your Policy will terminate.

7. Advance Cash Option

Outstanding Premiums

These are the premiums that the Policy Owner would have paid from the time he/she submits the claim documents up to the decision on the claim.

Things you need to know

- Payment of the advance cash option is not guaranteed, and we may opt to stop offering the advance cash option based on our actual experience. We will notify you before this happens.
- We will continue to pay the advance cash option up to the month that we decide on the claim or up to a certain period, which will be indicated in the conditions for execution of the advanced cash option.
- Here is an example of the advance cash option being part of the monthly cash benefit:
 - If the duration of monthly cash benefit is thirty-six (36) months and we already paid two (2) months of advance cash option before the claim is approved, the two (2) months of the advance cash option will be considered as the first two (2) payments of the monthly cash benefit. Thus, we will only pay you or your Beneficiaries the remaining thirty-four (34) months of cash benefit payments thereafter.
 - However, it is possible that you or your Beneficiaries filed a claim for a standard accident coverage and upon review of the claim, the claim qualifies under expanded accident coverage. In the example here we will consider that four (4) months of the cash benefit has been paid, since you or your Beneficiaries received double of the advance cash option you or your Beneficiaries should have received. We will only pay you or your Beneficiaries the remaining thirty-two (32) months of cash benefit payments.

8. Your Beneficiaries

When you bought this Policy, you chose to either name Beneficiary/ies or set the Beneficiaries to the default and standard order. This means that if (a) you passed away, or (b) we cannot continue to pay you the disability benefit because you passed away during the payout of the benefits, we will pay the benefits to your named Beneficiary/ies or to your family member/s if you chose the default and standard order according to this sequence:

1. Your surviving legal spouse; or
2. Your surviving legitimate, illegitimate, legitimated, legally adopted, and recognized natural children, without distinction; or
3. Your surviving parents; or
4. Your surviving siblings.

If none of the family members stated above are alive, the benefit will be paid to your estate.

If you initially chose the default and standard order for Beneficiaries, you may replace this and name new Beneficiaries after buying this Policy. If there are no living named Beneficiaries upon your passing due to accidents that are covered under this Policy, we will pay to your family member/s the benefits in the standard order stated above.

Things you need to know

- All Beneficiaries are primary and revocable in your policy, which means you have the right to change any of the Beneficiaries over time and you can perform all rights and privileges under this policy without your Beneficiary's consent.
- After we pay any benefit of this policy to you or your Beneficiaries, we will be discharged from any liability corresponding to the benefit amount that has been paid.
- The Beneficiaries share the benefits equally, unless specified otherwise. For example, if you do not have a spouse and have four (4) children, benefits will be distributed equally among the four (4) of them.
- You may add, remove, or edit information of your Beneficiaries. Any change will only be applicable after we approve it.

9. Termination of Your Policy

Termination

Refers to the end of your insurance policy, usually due to the Policy's term ending or due to cancellation. Termination date is the date your insurance coverage ends.

Your Policy will terminate on any of the following days, whichever is the earliest:

- Termination Date stated in your Policy Details Page(s); or
- Effective date of your request for cancellation of your Policy; or
- The day after the end of the thirty-one (31) day grace period, where the premium for your Policy is due and remains unpaid; or
- The date your claim for disability is approved; or
- The date you fail to return the advance cash option and outstanding premiums, if your claim for disability is denied; or
- The date you pass away.

After the termination of this Policy, we will have no more liability under this Policy except to return any unused premium to you.

Things you need to know

You can still file a claim after your policy terminates provided the disability or death occurred while your policy was active.

9. Termination of Your Policy

Unused Premium

This is the portion of the premium paid that was not utilized due to the termination of the Policy.

For example, the Policy Owner paid for a 3-month coverage but during the second (2nd) month of the policy year, the Policy is terminated due to one of the reasons listed above. We will return a portion of the premium corresponding to the remaining one (1) month of the policy year to the Policy Owner. However, if the Policy terminates due to a claim being approved, there will be no unused premium.

10. Your Rights

10.1 Right of Policy Ownership

While alive, you have all the rights and privileges to this Policy without the need of consent of any revocable Beneficiary.

Rights & Privileges

This may refer to, but is not limited to the following:

- Make changes to the coverages.
- Change your premium payment schedule (ex. from annual to monthly or vice versa)
- Make changes to Beneficiaries.
- Update your personal information.

10.2 Right to Policy Assignment

You have the right to transfer your rights and privileges under this Policy to another person or entity. To assign your Policy to somebody else, you need to send us a signed copy of the assignment form. We will then register and confirm the assignment through an Endorsement.

You should make sure the assignment is proper and valid. We are not responsible for the legal validity of any assignment.

10.3 Right to Filing of Legal Action

You cannot file for legal action five (5) years after we have decided on your claim.

Filing of legal action for your Policy can be made anywhere within the legal jurisdiction of the Philippines.

10. Your Rights

10.4 Right to a Free-Look Period

Free-Look Period

The fifteen (15) day duration after you have received your Policy when you may cancel your Policy and get a full refund of the premiums paid.

You have fifteen (15) days after you have received this Policy to review it. We will consider that you have received it, once we have sent it electronically to your registered e-mail. If you cancel your Policy within the free-look period and you have not applied for a claim under this Policy, we will refund the premiums you paid in full.

11. General Provisions

11.1 Applicable Law

This Policy will be interpreted and governed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of the Philippines.

11.2 Person Who Can Amend the Policy

Only our President and Executives have the power to amend provisions of your Policy, and only in writing.

11.3 Non-Waiver of Policy Provisions

Waiving or modifying any provision of your Policy at any time will not mean that it will apply to any other time or incident. For example, if we allow you to pay your premium beyond the grace period and we do not terminate your Policy, this does not mean the succeeding premiums that are due can be paid beyond the grace period.

11.4 Surplus Distribution

Surplus Distribution

The distribution of earnings by a life insurance company to its life insurance Policy Owners.

Your Policy does not participate in any of our surplus distribution.

11.5 Accurate Information

If we find that the age, sex, or other info you have declared for yourself are misstated and affect your benefits, we may return the excess premiums (if any) or collect additional premium. If you become uninsurable after such adjustment, we will return all unused premiums. Also, clerical errors in keeping records will not affect your Policy if the errors are corrected immediately upon discovery.

You should inform us if you change your occupation while your Policy is active. If you fail to inform us and we find out during your claim that your new occupation is more hazardous than your occupation we have on record, we may adjust the benefit amount corresponding to the premium that you would have paid had you declared the change in occupation.

11. General Provisions

11.6 Incontestability

We cannot contest your Policy after one (1) year from any of the following, whichever comes later:

- a. the effective date of your Policy; or
- b. when you make changes in your benefit coverage, which starts from the effective date of change; or

We can only contest any declaration you have provided within the one (1) year period stated above. However, if the reason for the contention is due to non-payment of premium or any other grounds recognized by relevant laws or rules and regulations, we may contest it anytime.

11.7 Non-Forfeiture

Your Policy does not have any cash value.

11.8 Payments are not Adjusted for Inflation or Deflation

Article 1250 of the Civil Code of the Philippines (Republic Act No. 386) - which reads as follows - is understood and agreed not to apply in determining the extent of any of our liability in your Policy:

"In case an extraordinary inflation or deflation of the currency stipulated should supervene, the value of the currency at the time of the establishment of the obligation shall be the basis of payment, unless there is an agreement to the contrary."

11.9 Contacting the Insurance Commission

The Insurance Commission, with offices in Manila, Cebu, and Davao, is the government office in charge of the enforcement of all laws related to insurance and has supervision over insurance companies. It is always ready to assist the general public in matters pertaining to insurance. For any inquiries or complaints, please contact the Public Assistance and Mediation Division (PAMD) of the Insurance Commission at 1071 United Nations Avenue, Manila with telephone number (632)-8523-8461 to 70 and email address publicassistance@insurance.gov.ph.

The official website of the Insurance Commission is www.insurance.gov.ph.
